Safety Data Sheet

To who it may concern,

Please find enclosed a Safety Data Sheet or Safety Data Sheets for the product(s) supplied to you with the Safety Regulations valid at the time of printing.

If you already have a Safety Data Sheet in your files for the product in question, this should be replaced by the new version.

We assume that you provide access to the Safety Data Sheets for all departments with responsibility for the safety of employees and for the handling of the products.

Respectfully

Flint Group
